

PRESS RELEASE

York, PENNSYLVANIA - October 1, 2012 -- Two veteran attorneys from York and Reading, PA announced the formation of their new law firm on October 1st. Sean Summers, formally a partner at Barley Snyder LLP, and Jill Nagy, formally of Nagy Law Office, have joined to form Summers Nagy Law Offices.

After working collaboratively as co-counsel on a variety of high-stakes lawsuits, Sean Summers and Jill Nagy concluded that their clients could be better served by formally partnering and establishing Summers Nagy.

Summers has represented individuals and businesses in a variety of complex and "bet the company" lawsuits. Probably most notably, Summers was lead counsel for Albert Snyder in Snyder v. Phelps and holds the distinction of being one of the few Pennsylvania attorneys that have argued before the U.S. Supreme Court.

Sean Summers said, "This is a great opportunity to work with someone who I trust and respect and who shares the same values as I do. Jill and I complement each other's skill set in a way that allows us to better serve our clients and enjoy the work we do."

Jill Nagy added, "This merger brings together skilled lawyers whose varying experience will enhance our law practice and help us continue to broaden the delivery of legal services to our clients."

Nagy's clients include, for example, transit authorities, transportation companies, municipalities and developers. She regularly collaborates with women-owned businesses to provide legal services in this difficult economy that affects us all. She has argued municipal matters before the Pennsylvania Supreme Court. Further, Ms. Nagy has argued before the federal Court of Appeals, commonly known as the Third Circuit. In one matter before the Third Circuit, she successfully argued a complex civil rights claim on behalf of one of her clients circumventing several years of litigation.

The boutique law firm opened its doors in October of 2012, offering clients representation in a responsive and effective way to help reach client's goals, whether through alternative dispute resolution or trial. The law firm represents plaintiffs and defendants in claims and litigation, practicing in the areas of civil litigation, transportation law, land use/zoning, labor and employment, business and commercial, appellate work and municipal law.

The firm also provides in-house training and consulting services to its clients to minimize litigation exposure.

Summers Nagy Law Offices are located at 35 South Duke Street in York, PA 17401, at 200 Spring Ridge Drive, Suite #202 in Reading, PA 19610 and at 1161 Franklin Street in Johnstown, PA 15905 and can be reached at the York, PA office (717) 812-8101 and the Reading, PA office (610) 939-9866 and at the Johnstown, PA office by appointment.
<http://www.summersnagy.com>

Please contact Sean Summers at ssummers@summersnagy.com or (717) 586-8581 for inquiries.